

Distler's offer to make available the College's facilities to the military, including a Naval Officer training program and a pre