

brothers and sorority sisters that really did start feeling like family.

pushed us on the playing field and the co-stars that made us shine on stage.

All those years ago, we arrived on campus excited and nervous. We were ready to work hard and to play hard. We were ready to study, to volunteer our time and energy, and ready to participate in all F&M had to offer. F&M is more than a college or a campus or even an